

Intentionality

“Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place and there He prayed.” Mark 1:35

There is no question that Jesus was intentional about the way He spent time in prayer with the Father. What an amazing example for us to follow. Try and envision yourself in that very place right now. Nothing extraordinary, but a solitary place with the Father, where we have His full attention. Just as Jesus did, we too can benefit from a personal and powerful quiet time.

Jesus made intentional time with God a daily priority. He could rest in knowing that He was following his Father's will to disciple and equip his followers. In the Scriptures, we learn how Jesus came along side of others where ever they were and used those ordinary moments in life to show them kingdom truths. Jesus taught with confidence from the Father and He passed that confidence on to His followers to “go out into all of the world to make disciples of all nations.” (continued on back)

Well known Evangelist, Billy Graham is an example of that type of spiritual domino effect which flows from intentionality. Sunday School teacher Edward Kimball helped lead Dwight L Moody to Christ. Moody led J. Wilbur Chapman to Christ. Chapman led Billy Sunday to Christ. Sunday led Mordecai Ham to Christ. Ham led Billy Graham to Christ. Interestingly, Christian businessmen of Charlotte, NC came together in May of 1934 to hold an all-day prayer meeting at the Graham farm. They prayed that out of Charlotte, the Lord would raise up someone to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Intentional life was answered through the life of Billy Graham.

Home Missions is intentionally working with new congregations which are in one of three stages of development:

- New Gatherings
- Subsidized congregations
- Non-subsidized congregations

Church planting is challenging work and it takes time to build trust, develop relationships, and nurture a sense of family.

In Home Missions our places of activity these days include church planting, FLAPS, the Alaska Mission work, Parish Building, and training sessions at the home office or across the country. We are so grateful for these many forums in which to serve.

Let's go back to that quiet place with the Holy Father and ask him for his wisdom and direction. Think about the opportunities we have to reach out to our family, our neighbors and those we work with. What about the silent masses who are struggling to find a Word centered congregation where they can worship and raise families in love and encouragement? Can you imagine sharing the grace that a good God has shown to you? Let's rise up in the morning to spend time with God in a quiet place to be equipped for kingdom work on a daily basis.

Feel free to tell those you care about how to contact us. We are so willing to come share what we have to offer because of what Jesus Christ has done for us.
