

Airplanes are vital to our work in Alaska. God has blessed the aviation ministry in Alaska with two Piper Cherokee airplanes. The Cherokee 140 is a small 4 passenger plane. The Cherokee 6 can carry seven passengers; we call it our flying suburban. Our Cessna 175 bush plane enables our pilot to land on remote airstrips.

Did you know that many kids in Alaska fly to school in a small plane?